INTERIM EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

Interim Executive Director Lynn Questell

Lynn Questell assumed the position of Interim Executive Director of the Tennessee Emergency Communication Board on April 1, 2005. She brings extensive experience in federal and state telecommunications law and regulatory matters to the position, having served as the Board's General Counsel since 2003 and as Counsel to the Tennessee Regulatory Authority from 2001 to 2003.

Ms. Questell received her undergraduate degree from the University of Akron. She earned her Masters and law degrees at the University of Georgia. After a clerkship at the United States District Court for the Northern District of Georgia, she served as a staff attorney for the United States Court of Appeals for the Eleventh Circuit in Atlanta, and as a staff attorney for the Georgia Court of Appeals. She also worked in private practice for several years. After moving to Nashville in 1999, she clerked for the Honorable Patricia J. Cottrell of the Tennessee Court of Appeals.

Ms Questell is a member of the State Bars of Tennessee and Georgia and the National Emergency Number Association. Her book on Federal Laws Prohibiting Employment Discrimination in the Public Workplace was published by the Carl Vinson Institute of Government at the University of Georgia.
